Blended learning programme

ACADEMIC YEAR 2021-22

BLENDED LEARNING

for Primary Music Subject Leaders

This taught course comprises three half-day training sessions across one term.

These will be supported with access to online learning materials, and challenges, ideas and activities to try out in the classroom, culminating in a short assignment.

On completion of the assignment participants will be awarded with the Music Education Solutions® Primary Music Leadership Certificate.

COURSE CONTENT

Live sessions & online study

Leading Music in your school

In this session we look at how to motivate, inspire and support staff to teach music with confidence, how to manage an extra-curricular programme, and how to address differentiation including for SEND pupils.

Planning & Assessing Music in your school

In this session we look at how to create pedagogically-sound schemes of work and lesson plans, how to satisfy an Ofsted Deep-Dive, and the resources and software available to help deliver the national curriculum for music.

Delivering music in your school

In this session we look at activity and resource ideas to help you deliver performing, listening, composing and improvising activities in the classroom.
